

Nancy (Bailey) Davidson - Jacks Creek Teacher of the Year 2016 - 2017

Ms. Nancy has been teaching at JCES for 25 years with experience in Kindergarten, 2nd grade, and currently 3rd grade. She has been very involved in all aspects of school life including Teacher Coach (3 years), Mentor for new teachers, Yearbook Editor (10 years), and directing numerous grade level plays and programs, to name a few things. Outside of school, Ms. Nancy is a member of the Jacks Creek Community of Christ Church. She is a very proud, loving mother of Ashley Brown (Hunter) and Braden Davidson, and is also very blessed to have 2 precious grandchildren, Drew and Bailey Brown. Her favorite out-of-school activities include spending time with family while traveling, swimming, shopping, playing games, and going to movies. Ms. Nancy's philosophy is that "Everybody is somebody's baby,..Treat others the way you would want someone to treat your own baby."
